IV Role of Compliance Officer

1. The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of Directors but not less than once a year.
2. The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct.

V

Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- 1 Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Price Sensitive Information. They should not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities.
- 2 No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 3 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- 4 The Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a “need to know” basis, i.e., and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
- 5 All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the Compliance Officer.
- 6 The files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files shall have adequate security of login and password etc.
- 7 The Designated Persons must follow the Company’s Code of Practices and Procedures for fair disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information [UPSI] and also the Policy for Determination of Legitimate Purposes for Fair Disclosure of UPSI.
- 8 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code and or the Regulations, an UPSI may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
  - a) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company;
  - b) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute UPSI is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

9 For purposes of sub-regulation (8), the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-regulation (8), and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The Board of director shall maintain a structured digital data base containing name and PAN of such persons or entities with adequate internal controls and checks to ensure non-tampering of the data base.

VI Avoidance of Misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company has adopted a Chinese Wall mechanism thereby preventing passing of unpublished price sensitive information to any person for any purpose other than those to whom and for which such information can be conveyed legally in accordance with this code read with Regulations viz. process permitting “cross the wall.”

VII Determination of Legitimate Purposes

The term legitimate purposes shall include sharing of UPSI in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisor, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors and consultants provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

The board of directors shall guide the compliance officer to communicate any UPSI for legitimate purpose. The board of directors shall have adequate process and mode of sharing such information. Such person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a ‘legitimate purpose’ shall be considered an “Insider” for the purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with these regulations.

Sharing of UPSI shall be considered for a legitimate purpose whenever the Board of Directors considers deems fit in compliance with the provisions.

VIII

Trading Plan

1. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
2. Trading Plan shall -
  - a) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
  - b) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
  - c) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
  - d) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
  - e) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
  - f) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
3. The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan as above and shall, if in compliance with the requirements, approve the same. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

Provided that preclearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan

4. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

5. Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

IX Trading Restrictions

Designated persons of the company shall be subject to trading restrictions as given hereunder:

1. Trading Window
  - a) The company shall specify a trading period, to be called "Trading Window", for trading in the company's securities. The trading window shall be closed during the time the information referred to in point IX (2) is un-published.
  - b) When the trading window is closed, the Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the company's securities during such period.
  - c) The time for commencement of closing of trading window shall be decided by the company.
  - d) The Trading Window shall be opened after 48 hours after the information referred to in point IX (2) is made public.
2. The Trading Window shall remain closed from the date of declaration of Board Meeting date at which the matters related to UPSI are proposed to be discussed.
3. Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the company's securities during the periods when trading window is closed, as referred to in point IX (2) above.
4. In case of ESOPs, exercise of option is allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.
5. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons and their immediate relatives of the Company when she/he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

6. Pre-Clearance of Trade
- a) Designated Persons and /or their immediate relatives who intend to deal in the securities of the company, when the trading window is open and if the proposed trade is in excess of Rs.10 lakhs or such other value as may be specified (market value) or 1% of total issued shares – whichever is less (in one or more lots) over any calendar quarter, should get their proposed transaction pre-cleared as per the pre-clearance procedure described hereunder.
  - b) No designated person and/or their immediate relatives shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade.
  - c) An application may be made in Appendix III attached to this Code, to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the designated person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the company in this behalf.
  - d) The application above in clause (c) should be accompanied by an undertaking in the format given as Appendix IV, executed in favour of the company.
7. The Compliance Officer shall, if the application at 6(c) above is approved, issue Pre-clearance Order in format given as Appendix V
8. All Designated Persons and / or their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within seven days after the approval is given, the designated person must pre-clear the transaction again. The Designated Person shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the order, the details of such execution with the Compliance Officer in Appendix VI. In case the transaction is not undertaken, intimation to that effect must be given to the Compliance Officer.
9. No Designated Person or his/ her immediate relative shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade when the trading window is closed or if he/she is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Prior to approving any trades, the compliance officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
10. It shall be the responsibility of Designated Person to ensure compliance of under this Code in case of their immediate relatives also.

- 11 All Designated Persons and /or their immediate relatives who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

- 12 In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the compliance officer after recording in writing his /her reasons in this regard. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

X Reporting Requirements

Designated Persons shall be required to provide following details of Securities transactions including the details of their immediate relatives to the Compliance officer:

Initial Disclosure

- 1 Every promoter, member of the promoter group, key managerial personnel and director of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, to the company within thirty days of these regulations taking effect in prescribed form - Appendix VIII.

5. Disclosures by other connected persons

The Company may, at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures in Appendix XI of holdings and trading in securities of the company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with these regulations.

XI Other Requirements

- 1 Designated persons shall be required to disclose in Appendix VII names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:
  - a) immediate relatives
  - b) persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
  - c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

2. The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to holding / trading by such person's immediate relatives.
3. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.
4. The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a period of five years.

XII. Mechanism for Prevention of Insider Trading

The Managing Director of the Company has put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements to prevent insider trading. The internal Control shall include all the provisions which are mentioned in the Regulations. A list of all employees and other persons with whom UPSI is shared shall be maintained and if necessary agreements shall be signed and due Notice shall be served to such persons. The Board shall review and evaluate the effectiveness and internal controls.

XIII. Penalties

1. Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her immediate relatives.
2. Any Designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities in contravention of the code of conduct may be penalised and appropriate action shall be taken by the company.
3. Designated person or their immediate relatives who violates the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, etc.
4. The action by the company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the Regulations.

XIV. Review

The Code has been framed/adopted by the Company in compliance with the provisions of the Regulations. In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Regulations which renders any of the provisions in this Code inconsistent with the Regulations, the provisions of the Regulations would prevail over the Code and the provisions in the Code would be modified in due course to make it consistent with the Regulations.

This Policy shall be reviewed by the Board of Directors as and when any changes are to be incorporated in the Code due to change in Regulations or as may be felt appropriate by the Board.

XV. Acknowledgement of receipt of the Code

Every Designated Person (both present and future) shall acknowledge receipt of the Code or any modification(s) thereto, in the form annexed to this Code as Appendix - I and forward the same to the Compliance Officer.

Any breach of the aforesaid Code brought to the notice of the Compliance Officer or any member of the Board or Senior Management shall be reported to the Board of Directors of the Company for necessary action.

XVI. Dissemination

This Code and any amendment thereto shall be hosted on the website of the Company.
